Maggots in school meals spark anger

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HORRIFIED parents have reacted with fury after maggots were found in their children's school dinners.

Rice contaminated with the parasites was discovered at Chalkstone Middle School in Haverhill. It is believed the maggots were spotted before they were served to pupils.

A letter sent home to unsuspecting parents said that a "naturally occurring parasite" had been found in the rice which was to be served with curry to those pupils at the school who have hot dinners.

One shocked parent, who did not wish to be named, said: "They said there was nothing to worry about and it won't happen again, but I think school dinners will be off the menu for a lot of children in the future."

"All the parents I have spoken to were horrified and won't be sending their children for school dinners again."

"I think people would like to know more about how it happened to be reassured at all. My children have packed lunches and I think a lot of others will be doing the same from now on."

A spokesman for Suffolk County Council said incidents were "rare."

He said: "Rice parasites were discovered in a meal at Chalkstone Middle School and Technology College on October 9. Thousands of meals are served in Suffolk schools every day and any incident such as this is extremely rare. These parasites' feed on rice and any health risk is negligible."

"However, the meal option was immediately withdrawn and a cold lunch provided instead."

Councillor budgets for tots' fun

TINY tots will be able to have extra fun at their nursery sessions after a welcome cash boost.

Suffolk County Councillor Phil French visited the Cartwheels Children's Centre in Greenfields Way, Haverhill, to hand over £4,000 from his locality budget. Joan Barnes, manager, showed him around the centre which provides nursery places, breakfast and after-school clubs as well as many other support services for families in the town. She said the centre was very grateful for the donation. Coun French said the cash was around half of his locality budget allowance for last year and he hoped it would help to pay for more toys and play equipment, as well as other items such as furniture and heating appliances. He said: "They were very pleased to receive the cheque. They do a very good job, it is very successful and the building itself is a great asset to the town."

Delayed Jubilee Walk project unveiled

A COUNCIL leader disputed claims that Haverhill residents are treated as second class citizens when he officially opened a £460,000 refurbishment project in the town.

The enhancements to Jubilee Walk were officially opened on Monday by Coun John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury

Borough Council. The work has been dogged by delays and problems, and the modern metal sculpture of Owen, a cat who used to be popular in the area, has met with mixed reactions.

Coun Griffiths said: "I have read far too much lately about people in Haverhill being second class citizens. We do not have any second class citizens in St Edmundsbury. Whether it is in Haverhill, or Bury St Edmunds or the villages, we are all in this together. I think most people appreciate our efforts in Haverhill, with the masterplan, the cinema, Tesco, the community football scheme and hopefully re-development of Gurteens: there is a lot happening in the town.

"This is the first major enhancement project brought forward as part of Haverhill masterplan and although we have experienced some difficulties along the way, the important thing is that they have been addressed and the area between the bus station and the town centre has now been very considerably improved by this extensive facelift. The completed scheme not only looks very good but will benefit Haverhill's residents and visitors alike."

Kathleen Bartlett, owner of Owen, said: "I think the sculpture is very nice. I did not like it at first, but I have grown to like it very much. I know a lot of people don't like it, but at least there is something there to remind people of Owen now."

Coun Marion Rushbrook, who now represents the Kedington seat previously held by her late husband Geoffrey, helped Coun Griffiths unveil a plaque in his memory. An "Owen" cake was also cut and given out to visitors.

The project was designed to improve a key gateway from the bus station into the town centre, with Jubilee Walk repaved and replanted, the car park resurfaced and handrails and a granite seat installed, with a sculpture of Owen.

Damage prompts call for more spy cameras

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

ANGRY town councillors are calling for a greater police presence and more CCTV cameras after a granite seat at the centre of a revamped area was damaged by skateboarders before its official opening.

Members of Haverhill Town Council pointed out the marks on the seat just after Coun John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, had officially opened a £460,000 renovation scheme at Jubilee Walk in Haverhill.

Centrepiece of an upgrade of the area is a circular seat made of granite imported from China with a modern sculpture of Owen, a cat who was a popular figure there.

Coun Paul McManus pointed out marks on the top of the seat made by the wheels of skateboards and he has been told they cannot be removed.

Coun McManus said: "I feel the problem is we have absolutely no police presence whatever. People have phoned up all the time, but by the time the police get here everyone is gone. Everything that we have achieved here today is a waste of time unless we can protect it. Everyone is working hard to get rid of the image that Haverhill has had in the past and this kind of thing does not help.

"To whoever is responsible for it I say skateboard somewhere else, leave the seat alone.

"I shall be calling for more CCTV cameras so that those responsible can be caught and punished severely. What we need most is a regular police presence in the area."

Coun Margaret Marks said: "I am asking for another CCTV camera as we have one, but it is pointing in the wrong direction. We need a regular police presence and I call on the police to do something about this.

"We need to prosecute those responsible and make an example of them."

Inspector Adrian Dawson, sector commander for Haverhill, said he had received no reports of damage in the area or complaints about skateboarding. He said: "There is coverage in that area, but we cannot provide 24-hour a day coverage in a specific location.

"We rely on timing of patrols and the CCTV system to detect any incidents of disorder and damage in that area. If the coverage of the CCTV cameras does not cover that particular area I would endorse any proposal to provide more cameras.

"If people damage property and we have the evidence to take them to court we will take robust action to make sure they face the consequences of their actions.

"If people have concerns about anti-social behaviour they need to contact their local Safer Neighbourhood Team and make them aware of it on (01284) 774410."

Thieves target cars

WINDOWS were smashed on two vehicles and items stolen from inside them during the same night in Haverhill.

At Shadowbush Close, Haverhill, between 7pm on Tuesday, October 9, and 7am the next day a red Volvo was broken into by smashing a window and CDs were stolen.

At Cambridge Close, Haverhill, between 1am and 7am on Wednesday, October 10, a brown Landrover Discovery was broken into by smashing a window, and food and drink inside was stolen.

Police are linking the two offences and anyone with information should call Pc Sarah Shepherd at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Spree of vandalism

VANDALS went on a spree of car crime when they attacked seven vehicles in Haverhill.

Three cars parked on waste ground had their windows and windscreens smashed. Then the offenders gained access to a compound at the rear of this area and damaged four more vehicles there.

The incident happened at Sturmer Road, Haverhill between 8am on Saturday and 11.20am on Sunday. Anyone with information should call Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Vehicle torched

A CAR stolen from Haverhill was found later burnt out in Linton.

A blue Ford Escort was stolen from a parking bay at Millfields Way, Haverhill between 1.30pm on Saturday and 8.15am on Sunday. Anyone with information about the theft should call Pc Fiona McMillan at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Furniture firm may axe 33 factory jobs

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

MORE than 30 workers at a furniture factory received the gloomy news that their jobs could be gone before Christmas.

Paragon Business Products gave 30-day redundancy notices to all 33 staff at its premises in Boundary Way, Haverhill.

The company makes office furniture and was started at Haverhill in the mid-1980s.

Roy Pelham, chief executive of the company, said it was consulting with staff about the possibility of closing down its Haverhill factory to reduce costs.

The company would look at all possible alternatives, but if the closure did go ahead, production would move to its Rotherham site and some staff would be offered jobs there.

Mr Pelham said: "We have another factory at Rotherham and it is likely we will be moving some of the production to Rotherham, if we can find no alternative at the end of the consultation period."

"We will be offering jobs there to employees who are interested. We will be discussing this fully with staff and looking at all possible alternatives."

"The furniture market has become extremely competitive and we saw Project Office Furniture go into administration last year."

Workspace Office Solutions in Hamlet Green, Haverhill, formerly Project Office Furniture, went out of business in March with the loss of 300 jobs.

It had been in the town since 1959 and at one time had a 1,000-strong workforce and was the UK's leading manufacturer of office furniture.

Mr Pelham said: "A lot of our competitors are buying in cheaper furniture from China in particular, and we just need to think about reducing our fixed costs."

"Haverhill has become very expensive and we have to remain competitive."

"It is not a happy day for anybody. We have been in Haverhill from the start."

"We have some people who have worked there a long time, some since it started and others moved from our Basildon factory when it closed three years ago."

"Productivity is good at Haverhill and we have a high level of skill there."

"But we are stuck with the fixed overheads and really the volumes are not high enough to sustain that expenditure."

■ READY TO GO . . . above, children prepare to step out in aid of the Meningitis Trust, and below, adults join them for the Toddle Waddle.

Pictures: David Johnson 439478/1.

Pupils take up toddle challenge

SOME of the youngest pupils at a primary school put on their walking shoes to take part in a sponsored Toddle Waddle.

The event was part of a series nationally in aid of the Meningitis Trust and 40 nursery and reception class pupils from Westfield Primary School in Haverhill took part. The youngsters aged between three and a half and five years walked from their school to the East Town Park in Coupals Road, and were allowed a short time on the play equipment there before walking back. Sponsorship money is being collected at the school and although the total is not yet known, a healthy profit is expected to be produced for the charity. The school decided to support the event because it was felt to be a worthwhile charity and an illness which could affect children of this age.

Shock as maggots found in school meals

■ From Page 1

"Stocks of the product, which was well within its sell-by date of April 2009, have been destroyed. Samples of the product and packaging have been examined by environmental health officers as part of an investigation which is ongoing."

Around 100 of the 440 pupils at the school eat dinners cooked on the premises and supplied by the Suffolk County Catering service.

Nigel Giles, headteacher at Chalkstone, refused to comment on the incident.

A spokesman for Forest Heath District Council said although the school involved was in the St

Edmundsbury Borough Council district, the investigation had been passed on to Forest Heath's environmental health department because the contaminated rice had come from a warehouse in its district, although she could not confirm where.

"The investigation is under way and the school has destroyed its stock of rice. No further rice will be supplied until the investigation is completed."

"The environmental health team has made one visit to the warehouse and will be making more before making a full report. The warehouse does not supply the public, so no-one will be going there to buy a bag of rice."

The food scare comes at a time when pupils are being encouraged to eat school dinners as a healthier option to the crisps and cakes which can be found in packed lunch boxes, against a background of rising childhood obesity figures.

Vet climbs Mount Kilimanjaro to raise cash for diabetes charity

VET HEATHER Bentley tested her head for heights in a big way when she climbed to the summit of Mount Kilimanjaro. Mrs Bentley, who works at the Swayne and Partners veterinary surgery in Hamlet Road, Haverhill, hopes to raise more than £4,000 for Diabetes UK from the trek, which she took part in with a Charity Challenge Team climbing to almost 6,000 metres above sea level. The 46-year-old vet decided to take on the challenge after her 17-year-old daughter went climbing in the Himalayas despite the fact that she was diagnosed with diabetes when she was 10. Mrs Bentley said: "She is great, she does not let it stop her doing anything. It is hard for her though, she has to think about everything she does and cannot stay out all night clubbing. "The trip was absolutely amazing, I had never done anything like that before. You sign up for these things and then you think, what have I done. It was an awesome experience. "This was not a technical climb with ropes, it was more trekking and scrambling up at very high altitude. Oxygen was in very short supply and you had to walk very slowly. The temperature went down to about minus 15. "The whole trek was an amazing experience although reaching the summit was very hard and a challenge in so many ways. However, the support of so many people helping me to raise valuable funds for Diabetes UK and a wonderful team of fellow trekkers helped me to reach the top." So far Mrs Bentley has collected £3,500 and anyone who wants to contribute can send sponsorship directly to the practice or donate via the web page www.justgiving.com/heatherbentley

MP in call for action

HAVERHILL MP Richard Spring is calling for action after discovering that almost six per cent of people in the East of England had performed DIY dentistry when they were unable to get professional treatment. A new survey has revealed that almost a fifth of those questioned from the East of England said that they had missed out on dental work because of the cost. More than half (51 per cent) of dentists in the East of England said new contracts brought in last year had made the quality of care worse.

Mr Spring said: "In Suffolk, only one in eight dental practices are accepting new patients. This would significantly improve if Suffolk got a fairer deal under the NHS funding formula. It is totally unacceptable."

Labour slams Tories' plan to 'tax A-levels'

LABOUR councillors in Suffolk have accused the Conservative administration of imposing a "tax on A-levels" by ending free school transport for 16-18-year-olds.

Suffolk County Council Labour Group reaffirmed its concern over the Conservative proposals, which was first mentioned in February's budget cuts when it was agreed to "review" free transport for children hoping to stay at school after 16.

The Labour group said the plan would disproportionately affect those living in rural areas and put A-levels and post-16

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

study out of reach of those who could not afford daily transport. Councillors believed it would also conflict with the attempts to expand educational opportunities in Suffolk, including University Campus Suffolk.

The Labour group is demanding assurances from the Conservative administration that they will not place financial burdens on aspirational children across the county by introducing a charge on post-16 education – a county council "tax on A-levels".

Graham Manuel, Labour leader for roads and transport said: "Every parent wants their children to have the opportunity to study hard and get on in life. Any Conservative plan to charge them for that opportunity will be fiercely fought by Labour councillors. We will never accept a Conservative tax on A-levels."

A spokesman for Suffolk County Council said confidential discussions were always held on a range of options being considered before the council announced its actual budget proposals.

These would be announced at the end of the month and subject to full scrutiny before the final budget is announced in February.

Bank's cash for kit

YOUNG footballers are running out on the pitch in brand new kit thanks to a cash boost from local bankers.

Grampian Gunners (U13) Football Team has received a donation of £800 from Barclays Bank to help purchase new football and training kits.

Jacqui Saville, from Grampian Gunners, said: "We are grateful to Barclays for their help, and we think it's amazing that Barclays has such a strong community programme where clubs like us can benefit a great deal. This donation will make a huge difference to our under 13s players."

Chris Smith, relationship manager for Barclays and member of the football club, said: "We are committed to looking after local communities by supporting a broad range of causes and hope that these funds will support the team getting their new kit for games and training."

The funds come from Barclays Community Investment Programme, which in 2006 donated £46.5million.

Fuel error damages five cars

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editor@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FIVE customers found their cars had been damaged after they filled up with fuel contaminated by water at a supermarket petrol station.

The petrol station at Sainsbury's in Haycocks Road, Haverhill, had been closed for six weeks for a refit and reopened last Friday. The pumps had to close again after the customers experienced problems with their vehicles on the forecourt after filling up with unleaded petrol.

A spokesman for Sainsbury's said the pipes at the petrol station had been upgraded as part of an environmental improvement scheme. Somehow water had got into a section of pipe and five customers had been identified who got water in their tanks before petrol was dispensed.

The spokesman said: "It did close temporarily while checks were carried out on all the pumps and there was no problem with the diesel at all. It was only five customers who were identified and their problems have been resolved."

"We have carried out tests and everything is fine now. There obviously will be a full investigation to find out what happened as there was water in the pipes which should not have been there."

The petrol station was closed for an environmental upgrade, which all petrol stations need to have done by 2010 to underground pipe work.

Asbestos scare forces school's early closure

A PRIMARY school will remain closed until after the half-term holiday after it was confirmed that material found in its roof was asbestos.

Pupils were sent home from St Felix Roman Catholic Primary School in Haverhill last Thursday afternoon when asbestos was discovered while building work was taking place at the school.

A spokesman for Suffolk County Council said: "A programme of refurbishment work was being carried out which revealed the presence of asbestos in the roof void.

Ongoing tests are currently taking place to reveal the likely extent of the contamination.

"We are currently planning the best way to remove the material and it is not clear how long it will take to complete the work.

"We are working hard to ensure that the children's education will not be interrupted beyond the half-term."

Young people set to have say on homes

■ STRONG COMMUNITY . . . Sandra Norris.
CP.

YOUNGER residents of homes owned by Havebury Housing could be getting a bigger voice in future.

Havebury Housing Partnership's Tenants' Forum has elected Sandra Norris from Haverhill as its vice chair and one of her key aims over the coming months is to help set up a Youth Forum for younger Havebury residents, an idea which is already under way.

Ms Norris said: "I want to see more young people become involved in community life and a youth forum will give them an opportunity to put forward their views."

"I hope this will help to see a return to traditional family values which is central to a strong community. Everything I do, I do for the benefit of the tenants as I want to make sure they have the best standard of housing possible."

Ms Norris has been a member of the Tenants' Forum for more than two years and was appointed to Havebury's board of directors in May.

As Havebury's Sheltered Housing Tenant Representative, Ms Norris already has an active role within the housing association.

She also sits on Havebury's Community Investment Focus Group, which each year has £50,000 available in small grants to help local groups and projects, and is a member of Havebury's performance panel, website committee and corporate complaints committee.

Stop spending our tax on rubbish

Sir, I would like to say a huge thank you to MP Richard Spring for allowing me to watch Prime Minister's Questions Time and visit the House of Commons. As only one of as few as four people who get the privilege to watch Prime Minister's Questions courtesy of Mr Spring, the whole experience was awe-inspiring. Mr Spring and his staff were extremely welcoming and their hospitality was first class. It is a joy to know that the votes of our local constituency are for somebody who is good at what he does.

I wish the individuals on the council whose idea was to have a £3,000 sculpture of a cat at Jubilee Walk would take a leaf out of his book.

What society do we live in if the Primary Care Trust are £300k in the red and cannot afford to keep our surgeries open, if 60 post offices in the local area have to be closed down – and even if the local Scout group has to ask for donations to help their group stay open and to have good facilities, when £3,000 is being spent on a mediocre sculpture of a cat that died over 10 years ago?

This is alongside the borough council's new bollards which must not come cheap.

Haverhill does not need these things, it needs our town clean, our town safe and our town free of expensive toot that we seem to be getting at the moment. Let's hope that the new crackpot idea of this council is to give back the tax money that they have spent on this rubbish so the public can choose accordingly if they want to spend their money on rubbish or buy something useful.

Maybe the council should think about doing the same.

Liam Plumridge

Am I alone in liking that cat sculpture?

Sir, Am I a lone voice in the wilderness? I've seen some of the letters about the sculpture of Owen the cat. As I recollect he was a ginger cat who was settled and happy in his territory. That territory seemed to centre around Jubilee Walk, the travel agents and the surrounding area. Looking at the sculpture it conveys to me a cat in a relaxed posture, not feeling under threat. It would appear to be a bronze-like material: this surely relates to the colour of Owen's coat?

That is how I remember Owen. Now I may be a lone voice, but I rather like it.

Top marks for dancers

YOUNG dancers achieved great success in their recent examinations. Dancers at the Lisa Mason School of Dance have been recognised for their hard work in preparing for and completing their examinations in ballet and tap disciplines.

The school celebrated a 100 per cent pass rate in all examinations, with many children and adult dancers achieving very high grades in each of the dance disciplines. Lisa Mason said: "I am delighted with the progress the dancers are making, and it is only right that they receive recognition for all their hard work. We are now all looking forward to more exams in December and preparing for our main stage show and other public performances in 2008."

Healthy test for whole family

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A CHANCE for families to make sure they are in the best of health is on offer at Haverhill.

MP Richard Spring will open the free event at the town's leisure centre at 10.30am on Saturday, which is organised by the Haverhill Association of Voluntary Organisations (HAVO) and Abbeycroft Leisure.

Various organisations will be offering tests including blood pressure monitoring, diabetes and blood sugar testing, body mass index testing, including for children, and checks on how efficiently the body uses oxygen.

Information stands will include natural remedies such as reflexology and head massage, with advice on substance abuse, oral hygiene and meningitis.

Goodie bags will be given away to the first 200 families through the door, full of information to take away and including five different pieces of fruit to encourage people to join the five-a-day scheme.

Sainsbury's, Aldi and the Co-op are among the sponsors of the event which is supported by St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Suffolk West PCT, and West Suffolk and Addenbrooke's hospitals.

A spokesman for HAVO said: "The day has drawn support from public, private and volunteer organisations hoping to encourage the whole family to be more conscious of health issues and be persuaded to both improve their lifestyles and use their access to many health related tests."

The event continues until 3pm and there is also a chance to win a George Foreman grill or a £5 voucher donated by the Co-op.

Reminder to fill in forms

VOTERS in St Edmundsbury are being reminded to register to make sure their voice will be heard in the event of an election being held.

Last month, St Edmundsbury Borough Council sent electoral registration forms to more than 44,000 homes to collect information so an updated register of electors can be published by December. So far, 70 per cent of households have returned their forms.

By law, if a household does not return its form, the council has to send someone to collect it, so St Edmundsbury's elections team is urging people to respond quickly.

Those who do not need to make any changes to their details can confirm their registration over the telephone or by using the internet.

If any details have changed, the form should be completed and returned.

Anyone with questions about their form can contact the helpline on (01284) 757131 or email elections@stedsb.gov.uk

Business is a family affair for Wendy and her sisters

■ ENTREPRENEURS . . . the Bowmans prove there is more to running a pub than pulling pints. Mum Shelia, centre, with, from left, Wendy, Angela, Hannah and Caroline. CP.

FORGET Al Murray and Peggy Mitchell – four sisters from Essex are being put forward by brewers Greene King as more typical landlords these days.

The Bowman sisters, who run the Red Lion pub at Sturmer, are being put forward by giant brewers Greene King as the kind of entrepreneurs that their latest research shows are now running pubs.

David Elliott, managing director of Greene King, said: "In contrast to the widely-held perception of the typical landlord, these young female entrepreneurs have together proved that there is, in fact, a lot more to running a pub than just pulling a few pints behind a bar.

"Bringing together a clear, innovative vision of their pub together with a strong business plan and business acumen, the Bowman sisters have made a great commercial success of their pub."

Wendy Bowman, 32, began her career in the pub industry at the tender age of 16 working as a part-time waitress, then she decided to go into business with her three younger sisters – Caroline, 30, Angela, 28, and Hannah, 25, at the Red Lion.

Despite their occasional differences, Wendy and her sisters manage to work together seamlessly in what is an all-family affair.

Far from proving divisive, the family element of the business has grown bigger still – even the sisters' mother, Shelia, is now involved.

Wendy said: "We all work together really, well . . . most of the time. We complement each other in the key aspects of running the business.

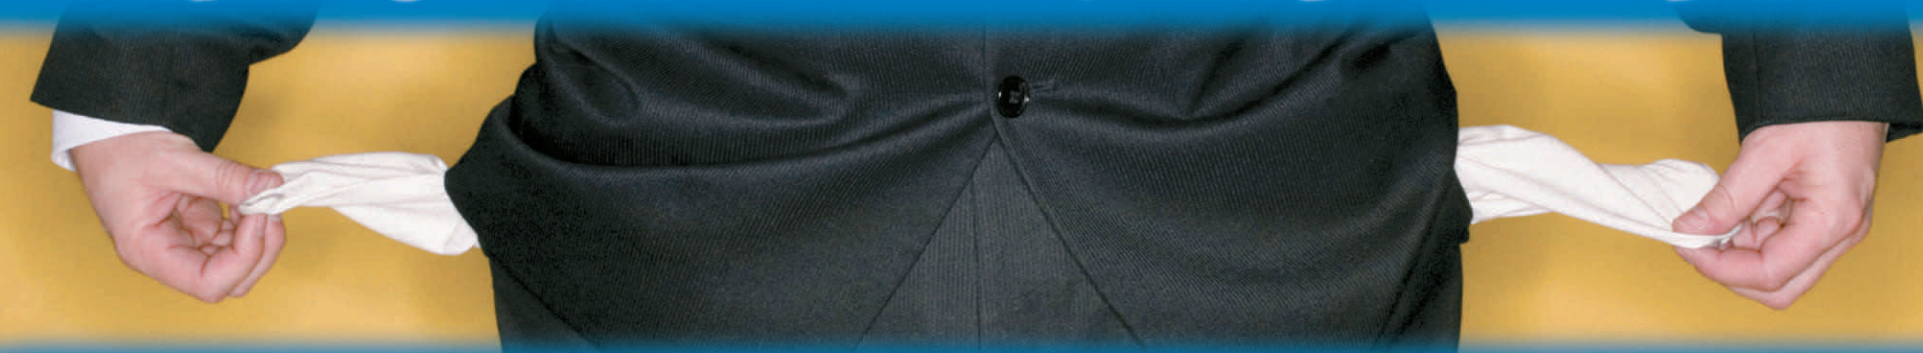

"You cannot walk into a pub these days and just serve food and few drinks – it is just not that simple. The fact that we are all sisters gives us great notoriety in the community – everybody knows who we are.

"My sister and I look after the cellar between us. I was taught at a young age and learnt how to clean the pipes and keep the cellar in tip-top condition, which is what we do.

"Beer sales have gone up maybe 20 per cent since we took over. We do not employ a manager to run the bar or a chef to run the kitchen, we do it all ourselves and lead by example, which is another reason why we are successful.

"The success of the Red Lion shows that we've got a great team, regardless of whether we are sisters or not. We now want to go further and manage even more pubs in the future."

Kedington

THE history of Kedington, its people, buildings and environment was the subject of More Old Images, presented at the community centre in aid of the parish church restoration appeal. More than 70 people attended the presentation by village history recorder, John Pelling. He is grateful to all who have provided photographs of the past 100 years and would be pleased for residents to find even more in their albums. Mr Pelling welcomed comments and questions on the content of the slides. Elderly residents in particular recognised friends, family and connections. Even events of two world wars were included with a number of residents in uniform. The audience were so interested they voted for a further 20 minutes. The evening included a fish and chip supper and a bar was available. Mrs Upton, on behalf of the church, thanked Mr Pelling for an interesting evening.

■ Garden Society: The AGM of the society was held in the Legion Hall recently. Chairman Madge Pelling welcomed everyone and reported on a successful year, with interesting speakers, an increase in membership and visits to some fascinating gardens and nurseries.

■ PERFECT . . . standard bearer Peter Fleming, right, with the new standard for the Haverhill Ex-Servicemen's Club and other members.

Picture: Keith Heppell 439918.

Ex-service club gets its own standard

AN EX-SERVICEMAN'S club now has its own standard to carry at future parades.

Haverhill Ex-Serviceman's Club has never had its own standard before and a service to bless the new one was held at St Mary's Parish Church, conducted by the Rev Ian Finn. The service was attended by Coun Margaret Charlesworth, mayor of St Edmundsbury; Les Ager, deputy Haverhill town mayor, and Richard Spring MP, as well as veterans and members of the club, representatives of the Royal British Legion, the Navy and cadets. The standard bearer carrying the new flag was Peter Fleming.

A reception was held afterwards at the club in Quakers Lane, off the High Street, where guests were greeted by president Joe Deeks, vice-president Lionel Alexander, chairman John Plant, treasurer George Brooks and the rest of the committee.

June Cranham, honorary secretary of the club, said although it had more than 1,000 members aged between five and 95 years, a lot of people still did not know it was there. Anyone interested in joining can visit the club or ring (01440) 702337.

Treasurer Barbara Lavender also reported on a successful season with increased membership. Although the plant sale result was down some £13, the quiz night receipts were up by £8 and a grant of £50 had been made by the parish council, mainly in recognition of voluntary help carried out by some members in the maintenance of the Silver Street Millennium Park. Overall income for the year had risen to £971.99 compared with £813.49. It was agreed by a vote that the accounts should be switched to Barclays. Officers elected for the coming year were: Madge Pelling, chairman; Barbara Calendar, treasurer; and Marion Senior as secretary. Retiring officers were thanked. Plans were discussed for voluntary support officers and cake makers, speakers, fundraising and outings for the coming year. The first outing planned is a visit to Bressingham Gardens. Volunteers were invited to help in maintenance of the Millennium Park on Saturday from 10am to noon.

A bring-and-buy stall had a large selection of gardening accessories donated by members.

■ Diary: Friday, October 19: Beetle drive with fish and chip supper in aid of the parish church funds, Legion Hall, 7.30pm. Tickets £5, book with Val on (01440) 761 643 or Joan on (01440) 708 254. Sunday, October 21: Stourhead benefice service, Great Watting Church, 10am. Monday, October 22: RBL bingo, Legion Hall, 8pm. Tuesday, October 23: Whist drive in aid of RBL funds, Legion Hall, 7.30pm.

■ Holiday Club: Kedington combined churches' holiday club parts two, three and four will continue at the community centre during half-term on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 23, 24 and 25, from 10am to 3pm. These follow the successful part one held on August 23. For further information contact Rob on (01440) 703 492 or Celia on (01440) 704 293.

■ WI: For their October meeting, Kedington Women's Institute welcomed back Dr David Donovan to update on his work in the Niger Delta with his charity New Foundations which he and his wife started in 2003. Although this area is rich in oil, man's greed has caused it to be poverty stricken.

The idea is to train the people themselves to be health care workers so that they can go into villages and treat the vulnerable. Last year the charity treated 10,000 patients, undertook 200 cataract operations, immunised 2,500 children plus 500 pregnant mothers.

Sassy Nash: the punk poet

WITH her cockney-tinged lyrics that speak of the awkwardness of teenage romance and the vitriol of break-ups, Kate Nash is a modern punk poet.

Her number one single Foundations is a robust two-fingered salute to a soon-to-be-ex, with such classic lines as: "You say I must eat so many lemons cos I am so bitter, I said 'I'd rather be with your friends, mate, 'cos they are much fitter'."

The sassy 20-year-old has a lot to thank her fans for, like the Arctic Monkeys, Jamie T and Jack Peñate before her, her success was pretty much guaranteed after fans flooded her online MySpace page with messages of support.

She said: "Being able to upload your music to the web means there is a lot more power to the people. There's less of a machine, giving artists more of a chance."

And that other cockney sensation Lily Allen played her part too, thrusting Kate into the spotlight by elevating her to number eight of her MySpace "top friends" list. With similar humorous London delivery and idiosyncratic songs, the two are regularly compared to each other, but I approach the subject warily, aware Kate isn't fond of the tag "Mini Allen".

By Nik Shelton

"I want to be considered as an artist in my own right. I mean, we're both from London and we both talk about the same kind of things. But, you know, listen to my songs and come to my show and you'll see I'm totally different."

Hearing Made of Bricks, it seems the Harrow-born singer has few fears of being a one-hit wonder.

Foundations was a hard act to follow – topping the iTunes chart for four weeks – but the rest of her repertoire shows her to be a multi-faceted artist, from blues ballads to the punky sound of Mariella – a macabre ditty about a girl who glues her lips together.

"I love Mariella," Kate enthuses. "At the time I was conscious of being really in your face and that sometimes I was too loud and I wished I could shut up and glue my lips together."

Kate Nash plays the Junction, in Cambridge, on Monday.

Fun with gangsters and surfing penguins

AUDIENCES have been dicing with death at the Haverhill Arts Centre this week.

Centre Stage Company's latest show, Bugsy Malone, has taken over the building. Featuring a cast of more than 50 local youngsters, there are a few tickets available for performances at 7.30pm on Friday and Saturday, plus a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

■ Computer animated comedy Surf's Up (PG) is showing next Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10.30am. This inspirational tale of a penguin's first professional surfing competition proves anything is possible when you put your heart and mind to it, quite appropriate for the school holidays!

■ It's Baltimore, 1962, and larger than life teen Tracey Tumblad, has but one ambition – to dance on the Corny Collins show. Her luck changes when one of the stars leaves and Corny holds auditions. With hair piled high Tracey and her best friend head to the studio to grab their chance of everlasting fame. Hairspray (PG), starring Nikki Blonsky, John Travolta and Michelle Pfeiffer, is showing next Monday and Friday at 2.30pm.

■ Drawing on the second and most tender version of D H Lawrence's tale of burgeoning desire, a French adaptation of Lady Chatterley (18) is showing on Monday at 7.45pm and achieves the near impossible goal of staying faithful to the text. Constance, the lady of the manor, is trapped in a bleak, passionless life with a wheelchair-bound husband, but experiences an awakening of the senses with her gamekeeper. It is subtitled.

■ Full House Theatre Company makes a welcome return to the arts centre next Thursday when they bring to life the well-loved classic tale, Pinocchio.

An enchanted puppet discovers what it is to be a real boy, while his father Geppetto watches his son learn from his many mistakes. The show starts at 2.30pm and is suitable for children over the age of five and their families.

■ For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

If you're a First Time Buyer, £315 per month could be very helpful for that first difficult year of property ownership. For example, a £600 mortgage sounds expensive, make that £285 and it all seems a lot more affordable.

If you're looking at buy-to-let, that £315 could well make the difference between making a profit each month or a loss.

On specific plots at BarnabyWay, the new development in Haverhill, Abbey will pay £315 per month into your bank account every month for a year, no catches, no questions!

To find out more come and visit us on site between 10am and 5pm on Saturday, 20th or Sunday, 21st October. Our sales staff will be able to show you the properties and an independent mortgage advisor will be on hand to give you an idea of what you can borrow and how much repayments will be.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.

Clubman not an easy ride

CREATING a retrospective version of a car for a modern audience is never easy.

Chrysler brought it off with the PT Cruiser but now faces the problem of "Where to go from here?"

BMW has just made a very fine job of creating a modern version of the Mini Clubman by injecting modern ideas and materials – but the same set of problems will face it when it comes to producing Mk II.

The original Mini Clubman was a typically English car and was greatly loved by its followers.

I wonder what they would have made of the latest Clubman – no wood, and only one tiny door for rear seat passengers and that giving access from the road side of the car.

Inside the mixture is very much as per the current BMW Mini. The tricky switches, huge centre dial and tiny dial mounted on the steering wheel are still there, but are people going to buy it for what amounts to two doors at the back and a modest increase in space?

The car comes in three versions: the Mini Cooper Clubman, the Cooper D Clubman and Cooper S Clubman. Prices run from £14,235 to £17,210. And it is oddly asymmetric with two doors on the right hand side and one on the left. Because of stringent US regulations it proved impossible to move the left-mounted filler cap to the right so – rather than do nothing in the way of improving rear seat access – it was decided to put a small forward-facing door on the offside.

Frankly it does very little to help rear seat access and the rear seats are cramped in the extreme.

But under the bonnet there are some very clever ideas. The car has regenerative braking which means it charges the battery when the brakes are applied. It also only uses the generator when needed, thereby removing a large load from normal running. And the same applies to the cooling pump – which helps produce 51.4mpg combined fuel consumption for the basic Clubman.

All models have a stop-start

arrangement so when the car is stationary at traffic lights the engine stops and saves fuel. It restarts on moving into gear. The diesel version is particularly smooth with the added advantage of good low-down performance.

On paper the Clubman is a car which does not make sense. Why would you produce a modern version of a tiny estate car of 50 years ago and then charge a top price of £17,210 for it? Why offer rear doors which open on to a space hardly sufficient for a couple of suitcases and call it an estate? And why add a miniature side door which opens on to seats which aren't worth sitting in anyway?

It is all down to the fact that people buy cars with their hearts and not their heads.

BASICALLY . . .

A fashion icon high on chic but low on practicality. However it does retain the superb handling of the saloon and convertible and I fully expect it will sell in large numbers.

Morris Minor a most-loved car

More evocative than an Aston or even a Mini

AWAY with Aston Martin and move over Mini, for this week the Morris Minor was named as the car that best personifies Britain and its people.

The Morris Minor, which was in production from 1948 to 1971, came top in a poll for motor insurer Highway.

First shown at the London Motor Show in 1948, the Morris Minor had Sir Alec Issigonis, the man who went on to create the Mini, as one of its designers.

Joint second in the poll were the Triumph Spitfire and the Austin Healey.

Other names in the top 10 included Ford Anglia, Triumph Herald, Morris Oxford and Morris Cambridge – all vehicles that were features of the road in the 1950s and 1960s as car ownership quickly spread to the majority of households.

Highway Insurance managing director Chris Hill said: “Personally I would have voted for the Hillman Minx as I owned a number of these over the years but I can certainly understand why so many people see the Morris Minor as such a strong symbol of Britishness.

“At Highway we still have over 500 Morris Minors on our books – some classics, some heavily modified, which can be quite difficult to get insurance cover for.

“But whatever the type, I know from personal experience how passionate their owners are about them,” he added.

■ QUINTESSENTIALLY ENGLISH . . . the Morris Minor has been voted the car that personifies us as a nation.

More than 1.6 million Morris Minors were produced. When first launched in 1948, the car cost just under £360. Owners have included Frank Spencer (Michael Crawford) in TV’s Some Mothers Do ‘Ave ‘Em.

Rosie Hamilton, spokeswoman for the official Morris Minor Owners’ Club, said: “The voting public has tremendous taste. The car is so quintessentially British; delightful, very honest, completely understated, and instantly recognisable anywhere in the world.”

According to British drivers, the 10 cars which are “most evocative of all things British” are:

1. Morris Minor
- 2= Triumph Spitfire and Austin Healey
4. Ford Anglia
5. Triumph Herald
6. Morris Oxford
7. Austin Cambridge
8. Vauxhall Victor
9. Bentley Brooklands
10. Morris Cowley.

FOOTBALL

Grampian hit for six to end unbeaten start

Grampian Gunners U14 1
Priory Parkside U14 6

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE,
DIVISION 14A

GRAMPIAN lost for the first time this season against a strong and well organised Priory side.

Half-time saw the visitors lead by a single goal.

The lead was doubled two minutes into the second half, but Jacob Brown's 20-yard volley after good work by Jordan Jackson reduced the arrears.

Unfortunately, that was as good as it got for Grampian, as the visitors scored again five minutes later.

With Grampian then changing their formation to try to get back into the game, they conceded three goals in the last eight minutes to end up well and truly beaten.

Grampian manager Simon Youngs said: "Priory deserved their win, although I take some of the blame for the heavy score, as I changed the formation near the end and we got punished."

Grampian Gunners U10 1
West Wrattling Yellows U10 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10E

THIS fantastic match saw Wrattling under constant pressure in the first half.

Grampian's Toby Daly shot just wide, Mitchell Forshaw had efforts saved, and Jamie Lingard also went close.

The pressure paid off with a long throw from George Mustoe being flicked on to Lingard, who volleyed in from outside the box.

Jason Moore, who worked hard in midfield and also headed against the post, earned himself the man-of-the-match award.

Wrattling came out for the second half and scored early on when Charlie Ellam dribbled into the box and fired under keeper Lewis Knightly.

An end-to-end match followed with Grampian's Lewis Whiting, Jack Ferguson and Bailey Cassidy all having shots saved by impressive Wrattling keeper James Woodward.

A draw looked likely, before Wrattling's Leyton George half-volleyed home the winner from 25 yards.

Saffron Walden U10 C 0
West Wrattling Reds U10 9

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10E

WRATTING winger Boyles' stinging free-kick opened the scoring for the visitors, with a second goal quickly following when Carter tapped in from close range.

The visitors' quick attacks soon produced more goals, with Bailey hitting No 3 and Boyles scoring his second shortly before the interval.

The second half saw the Reds continue their scoring ways, with skipper Jenkinson netting from close range and Carter scoring his brace, and his team's sixth, shortly after.

Eames' solo run and pass was then converted by Bailey from close range for No 7.

Wrattling's Ruthven's lofted cross found Carter, who headed the eighth and his hat-trick, and Kidd rounded off the scoring by notching his side's ninth.

Spartak 78 U11 0
Withersfield U11 5

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE CUP,
SECOND ROUND

WITHERSFIELD took an early lead with a goal from

Jake Simpson, but a tense first half followed with Spartak applying pressure and the visitors struggling to find their form.

However, with good defensive play from Ryan Harrow and Alex Horscroft, Withersfield held on to their lead until half time.

The second half saw a much-needed goal from Joe Baker, followed by another easing the pressure on Withersfield.

A goal from Liam Roberts, followed by Baker's hat-trick, saw Withersfield secure a place in the next round.

Hendon Hawks U9 4
Aztecs U9 A 6

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 9D

ALTHOUGH Hawks dominated the early stages, it was Aztecs who took the lead in the first period.

Hawks hit back when Milo Holmes played in Tommy Goodwin for the equaliser.

But Aztecs again took the lead just before the break, only for Branham Ince to equalise straight from the restart.

Aztecs took the lead again by penetrating the normally solid defence of Liam Cohen and Jonny Frost.

Jake Ryan and Kieran Grace then combined well and Goodwin made it 3-3.

When the Aztecs' keeper pushed an Ince corner into his own net, the Hawks were at last in the lead.

However, sloppy defending allowed Aztecs to equalise and, though captain Holmes drove his side on for a winner, further lapses cost Hawks two more late goals.

Great Bardfield U8 2
West Wrattling U8 4

JUST two weeks after playing and winning their first match, Wrattling travelled to Great Bardfield for another friendly minus a couple of players due to illness.

After a slow start, Wrattling got their noses in front with Overall smashing in from close range.

The lead was short lived as Bardfield were gifted two goals in as many minutes as the visitors struggled to get the ball out of their own half.

Wrattling stepped up a gear and Eldred found the net to level the scores.

The last 15 minutes saw some of Wrattling's best football, with Overall and Eldred adding to their goal tally to make the final score 4-2.

Ely City U8 0
West Wrattling U8 7

THIS was the final match of a hat-trick of friendlies for Wrattling in October.

Goals from Earle Lambert (3) Payne (2),

Strachan brace not enough for Angels

Northcroft Rangers 3
Delaware Feather Angels 2

TREADFIRST SUDBURY SUNDAY
LEAGUE, DIVISION FIVE

A SPIRITED second-half comeback from Northcroft consigned Delaware to defeat, despite an excellent double salvo from James Strachan.

Delaware had defended strongly throughout the first half, and, in time, went 1-0 up when Strachan notched his first of the season with a splendid low shot into the bottom left corner.

This lead was soon doubled when Strachan raced on to a loose ball, rounded the oncoming goalkeeper and tapped into the unguarded net. Right at the death of the first half, Delaware were pegged back when Lewis Townsend put the ball into his own net from a Northcroft free-kick deep into stoppage time.

The fightback continued early in the second half and two further goals were enough for the Sudbury side to see out the game at 3-2. The man of the match for Delaware was Adam Birnie.

Haverhill players' success in parks

HAVERHILL Tennis Club has been well represented in various summer parks' tournaments around the region with Joshua Towers, Ross Tobin, Tom Lord, Cormac McCooey, Kiki Norman, Abi Cartwright-Thomas and Rachel Jeffs all playing their part.

At the Bury St Edmunds event, Tobin won the under-12 boys' consolation final and Jeffs took the same prize in the girls competition in the same age group.

In the main under-12 singles tournament, Tobin got through to the quarter-finals, before losing a very long match in three sets.

The best Haverhill performance of all came when Tobin teamed up with Towers to win the under-12 boys' doubles final.

Tobin, partnered by Jeffs, reached the quarter-finals of the under-12 mixed event.

Towers also got to the under-12 final of the Lowestoft event before losing in three sets.

He was also runner-up in the under-14 doubles at the same event.

He also played in a match play event at Felixstowe and beat Norfolk's No 4 county player.

In the meantime, Tobin played at the Newmarket Open event and was runner-up in the under-12s.

Haverhill's boys have also performed well to reach the final of the Suffolk National Junior League, where they are due to take take on Culford.

Rovers exit cup after slow start

Newmarket 2 Haverhill Rovers 1

SUFFOLK PREMIER CUP, FIRST ROUND

HAVERHILL'S adventure in the Suffolk Premier Cup did not last long as Steve Taylor's side were dumped out of the competition in first round defeat at Newmarket on Tuesday night.

The Jockeys were quick off the mark and caught Rovers cold with the opening goal after just three minutes when Lee Dixon rose well to head in a Tony Beck corner.

However, the visitors were handed a lifeline before half time when the referee pointed to the spot on 29 minutes after Joe Harvey's venture into the Newmarket box was brought to a halt by a trip from home defender Ibbby Abutarboush.

Rovers skipper Marcus Hunt took up his usual spot-kick duties and dispatched the penalty to even things up before the break, but the maker of the first Newmarket goal

Beck was allowed to run at the Haverhill defence not long into the second half and hit was turned out to be the winner with just six minutes of the second half gone.

King's Lynn Reserves 2 Haverhill Rovers 2

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

JOE Harvey netted a last-gasp equaliser for Haverhill as they came from 2-0 down to earn a point away at King's Lynn Reserves on Saturday.

Steve Taylor's side were left reeling when Stephen Spriggs side-footed past Arron Benstead after eight minutes and gave the goalkeeper no chance from a precise Mark Heath-Preston cross 10 minutes later.

Nick Impey had a drilled effort parried by Duncan McAnally and experienced defender Colin Vowden headed Sam Green's corner straight into the grateful arms of the keeper.

Harvey was a whisker away from getting the visitors back into the contest before the break, when his powerful drive from 20 yards took a deflection and flew narrowly over the bar. Rovers, who were playing away from home in the league for only the second time this season, were saved by an offside flag when Spriggs thought he had sealed his hat-trick after 50 minutes.

And Joey Abbs pounced to pull a goal back moments later after Impey's initial shot had been blocked and he directed his shot past a defender on the line.

Louie Farrington struck the outside of the post with a volley before Impey rolled the ball into Harvey's path and he sent a fizzing drive into the bottom corner from 25 yards with two minutes remaining.

■ Rovers have now accumulated 11 points from eight league games and travel to Norwich United on Saturday.

The Norfolk club also have 11 points, but have played four matches more.

On Tuesday, Rovers entertain near-neighbours Saffron Walden in the preliminary round of the Ridgeons League Cup.
